Expansive lawns, big trees, rose gardens and landscaped garden beds surround Sash Ferguson whilst courtyards provide peaceful places for residents to enjoy time outside alone or with their family and friends. Most rooms enjoy garden views and many include kitchenettes. There are a small number of rooms in the support unit, which provides specialised assistance to residents living with dementia.

Our chef prepares all food on-site daily with two courses served for lunch and three courses for dinner each day.

There is a varied social program that residents can choose to participate in including crafts, games and physical activities. There is also a gymnasium on site with equipment to assist residents in building strength, increasing fitness and improving or maintaining mobility.

Doctors and allied health professionals regularly visit Sash Ferguson providing all residents with quality health care at home. The Adelaide Hills Community Health Service at Mount Barker Hospital also provides after-hours and emergency services.

Sash Ferguson's on-site hairdressing salon allows residents to have their hair done in-house at an additional cost.
